

FOR CASH ONLY.
Great Sacrifice in Smokers' Articles.
Family Pair Cigarettes... $1.00
Superior Pipe... $1.00
Largest stock of Imported and Domestic Cigars.
HARRY BAUM & CO.

The San Antonio Light.

Vol IV. No. 298.

San Antonio, Texas, Friday, December 12, 1884.

Ten Cents a Week

FOR CASH ONLY.
Great Reduction to Reduce Our Stock.
G. H. Mason, pianos... $1.00
Jules Mason, pianos... $1.00
Jules De Koning, pianos... $1.00
Jules De Koning, pianos... $1.00
Jules De Koning, pianos... $1.00
HARRY BAUM & CO.

1884 & FALL AND WINTER 1885

Our Prices Way Down.

Quality and Fit Way Up.

Assortment Complete.

Our Fall Stock of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children.

CENTS FURNISHING GOODS

For the Fall Trade have been received. We are ready to serve our old patrons and the public in general, and we only ask for an early and personal inspection. In our

COHEN & KOENIGHEIM,

309 AND 311 MAIN PLAZA, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

J. B. Belohradsky & Co.'s

SAN ANTONIO CITY BREWERY.

$1,000 REWARD $1,000

Will be paid to any one who will find adulteration of anything whatsoever in our Beer. We furnish Pure Goods and Defy Outside Competition. Bottled beer delivered to any part of the city or country.

ERASTUS REED,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN

FURNITURE

AND

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS.

Is Selling at Prices to Suit the Times and Defies Competition.

PLATING We are prepared to do Gold, Silver and Nickel Plating in all its branches, and at cheap prices. Old work replated. Our agent will call for your order.

DOE & ENGELKE, 244 Commerce Street.

J. Ronse & Co.,

IMPORTERS OF WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

233 Houston Street, San Antonio, Texas.

We beg leave to call the attention of consumers and people of good taste to our complete stock of CHAMPAGNE, WINE, LIQUORS AND CIGARS. The Family Trade is our specialty. Therefore every body is invited to inspect our cellars and observe the quality and genuineness of our goods. Samples free on application. We guarantee DELIVERY FREE in any part of the city. Please give us a call. We are at 111 East 12th St. and you are a BROTHERLY CUSTOMER. Our telephone number is 111-111.

J. RONSE & CO.

BURNS & McDONALD,

SAFETY

DEPOSIT VAULT

Manufacturers, Importers and Dealers in

Lime and Cement

Plaster Paris, Plaster hair

Bricks, Drain and Chimney Tiles, and Builders' Material Generally.

LADY VISITORS IN SEARCH OF

Fashionable Millinery,

AT MODERATE PRICES.

Should not fail to examine and price goods at Miss P. Schneider's Elegant and popular store.

20 NORTH ALAMO STREET.

Next to Postoffice, where they can find the largest variety and latest styles at lower prices than elsewhere. Also genuine Berlin Zephyrs, Saxony and German Worsteles, and all kinds of fancy material, embroidery and fancy work. Stamping neatly done to order.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR WILL OPEN THE EXPOSITION.

Chicago, December 11.—The South American commission starts for New Orleans next week, having concluded their labors here. The result of the visit was highly satisfactory. President Arthur having taken great personal interest in the work of the commission. The members of the commission are delighted at their hospitable reception by the Mexican authorities. The two governments are in full accord regarding all the important points. Great mutual advantages are anticipated as the result of the visit of the commission.

City of Mexico, December 11.—The South American commission starts for New Orleans next week, having concluded their labors here. The result of the visit was highly satisfactory. President Arthur having taken great personal interest in the work of the commission. The members of the commission are delighted at their hospitable reception by the Mexican authorities. The two governments are in full accord regarding all the important points. Great mutual advantages are anticipated as the result of the visit of the commission.

New York, December 11.—A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held today to consider what should be done in regard to the bankrupt bill before Congress. The Executive committee presented a series of resolutions declaring that the Chamber reaffirmed its action in the endorsement of the Lowell bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, and authorizing the President of the chamber to appoint a committee with power to co-operate with the committee of other commercial associations in urging the immediate passage of the bill pending known as the "Lowell bill."

Pittsburgh, December 11.—Chas. Cook & Co.'s mill has resumed operations after an idleness of six months. Sobenber's mill is running on double time at a reduction of 10 per cent, and the new mill will start up next Monday. Zuz & Company shut down one mill last evening, throwing out of employment 15 men, and the old mill is reducing the wages of all workmen except one, to 10 per cent. Various glass workers' unions throughout the country have subscribed $10,000 to aid the strikers, and blowers working in other cities have agreed to give, if necessary, the proceeds of one day's work in each week for the same purpose. Manufacturers are firm, and a bitter contest is anticipated.

Washington, December 11.—President Arthur has signed to Commissioner General Mordecai, who is here in the interest of the New Orleans exposition, that he will comply with the request made yesterday to start the machinery of the exposition on the 15th instant by electricity. The wire will run from the Executive Mansion to the exposition building, and will be so arranged that when the President opens the circuit in Washington, the motive power will, by this act, be applied to the machinery in New Orleans. Members of the Supreme court, delegates from the two Houses of Congress, cabinet officers and diplomatic representatives of foreign countries will be in attendance at the Executive Mansion to witness the opening. This new method of opening the exposition meets with general favor here.

Des Moines, Iowa, December 11.—Dispatches were received here from August 10-day, reporting serious trouble among the striking miners there, and calling on Governor Sherman for troops. Others were received yesterday from the miners to friends here to exactly the opposite effect. Sheriff Day, of that county, telegraphed that although there is yet no open outbreak, he expected it at every moment. Late this evening dispatches indicate more trouble, and the Adjutant General ordered the company of Cavalry, which will arrive here at midnight, and the governor's guards of this city and the two will be sent there by special train from here about 10 o'clock in the morning. It is not believed that serious trouble will be had, but the military will be sent to prevent an outbreak.

Chicago, December 11.—Arthur Gleason, Chief Deputy in County Clerk Ryan's office, makes a public statement this morning, under his own signature, charging Henry Riehl, one of the employees in the County Clerk's office, with having abstracted an envelope containing the ballots of the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward, and thereby allowing a substitution of the forged ballots found in the envelope when the same was opened by the Federal grand jury. Two persons are now directly charged with the crime. They are Joseph C. Mackin, Secretary of the Cook County Democratic Central committee, who received the bogus tickets printed, and Riehl with the abstraction of the envelope containing the original ballots to allow the substitution of the bogus one. Henry Riehl also makes a public statement in which he traverses the charges made by Gleason. He says the crime of removing the envelope from the county vault was undoubtedly committed by Gleason himself, and as he knows he is not the guilty party, he believes Gleason to be, and is strengthened in this view owing to contradictory statements by Gleason before the grand jury.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

Chicago, December 11.—The Federal grand jury came into the United States District court this evening and handed up indictments against James C. Mackin, Secretary of Cook county Democratic central committee, Arthur Gleason and Henry Riehl, in the County Clerk's office, and Dr. S. Stroner, S. P. Shields and Peter Hansborough, Judges, and Edward Kelly and W. J. Sullivan, clerks of election in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the late election, in the returns from which it has been shown that over 200 fraudulent ballots were substituted for good ones, over two weeks after the election. Mackin warrants are at once issued for the arrest of the indicted persons. Mackin came in soon after and Riehl and Gleason were arrested. All gave preliminary bail in the sum of $10,000 each for appearance before the United States commissioner to-morrow morning. The others have not yet been arraigned, and it is believed some of them have left for parts unknown. Hansborough lies dead at the county hospital.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Collected From Hotel Corridors and Elsewhere.

Henry Fink, of Leon Springs, is in the city.

Captain Joe Shiley, the ranger, is in the city.

Captain G. W. Baker, of Seguin, is in the city.

Rev. C. M. Rogers, of Austin, is in the city.

B. N. Hollingsworth, of Austin, is in the city.

Colonel M. A. Withers, of Lockhart, is in the city.

Mr. J. J. Pharo, of Tacktown, N. J., is at the Menger.

F. A. Douglass, a newspaper man of St. Louis, is in the city.

Captain William Redox, of Devine, is at the St. Leonard.

Mr. George Toot and daughters, of Pleasanton, are in the city.

Madame Theo and Maurice Gros are guests at the Maverick.

W. W. Russell, of the State National bank, Austin, is at the Menger.

Nat Lewis has returned from Houston leaving Louis Morris in his custody.

G. H. Heilig, Assessor and collector of Fayette county, is at the St. Leonard.

Mr. W. H. Johnson, an English prospector from Liverpool, is at the Menger.

Captain L. P. Sicker, the ranger, is in the city on his way home from Austin to Uvalde.

Miss Mary Howard, daughter of Dr. H. P. Howard, is reported as being seriously ill.

Major G. J. Gooch, attorney of the Gould railways in Texas, is at the Menger from Palestine.

Mr. Charles Mallory and his charming bride have returned to San Antonio from their wedding tour.

Rev. H. A. Tupper, a Baptist minister from Richmond, Va., is at the Menger, accompanied by his daughter.

Mrs. A. J. Brooks, a guest of the Vance house, and cousin of E. F. Redfield, of St. Louis, is in the city. She has had a severe attack of angina pectoris.

W. Bradley, of Cincinnati, Secretary of a large oil company, left San Antonio this morning. He has visited Texas to inspect the coal interests here.

Mr. U. Lott and two children returned last night from Corpus Christi, on their way to their home in Watertown, N. Y. They are accompanied by Miss Dunn, of Corpus Christi.

MADAME THEO.

Her Appearance at Turner Hall Last Night.

Madame Theo appeared at the Turner Opera house last evening for the first time. She enacted the Marion La Jolie part in a bewitching and enchanting manner all her own. Theo is charming, captivating and ravishing. Who could withstand her? From the most cynical and blasé, she would be bound to draw expressions of admiration. Whether in her pretty "mimes" or in her indescribable rendition of "Where are you going, my pretty maid?" her every movement is the poetry of grace. If one may use the term, she possesses a sympathetic voice that at once places her in rapport with her audience. Her pantomime is exquisite and at once comes without being grasped. She is a finished artist and her acting all through the opera is replete with an individuality which, added to Offenbach's sparkling music, produces her success entirely. The Courier reporter thought that Miss Theo had attained the ideal of opera bouffe, but after seeing Theo in La Jolie, Parisienne and Lady is overawed. Madame Theo has a very strong support in the Harriet of Mademoiselle Cecil Lafont, the La Comedienne of Monte Carlo. The Point of M. Lary is exceptionally good. Mlle. Nordali's fine voice showing to good advantage in the numbers that were in the role of Cleopatra and La Juliette of Madame Delorme betokened the lady a good comedienne. The choruses were well given, and the full orchestra, under the direction of M. A. Lorge, added in no small degree to the evening's success. To-night will be given Vau de Vau's Boqueron, in which Madame Theo will sustain the title role. Mlle. Lefort appearing as Beatrice.

A SAD DEATH.

Funeral of Miss Fanny Koenigheim This Afternoon.

An event occurred yesterday afternoon that has caused acute grief in one of the most respected families of San Antonio, and the family in their bereavement have the sympathies and condolence of a large circle of friends. Miss Fannie Koenigheim, who was the second daughter of Marcus and Lizzie Koenigheim, died yesterday afternoon, at the early age of 18 years, a victim to that fell disease consumption. It is impressively sad to have to record the work of the great reaper, death, cutting her down in all her beauty, a chaste and bright womanhood. Although Mr. and Mrs. Koenigheim are blessed with other intelligent daughters and sons, this loss of one of their favorite children is one which leaves irreparably a void in their hearts. The disease which was so fatal to this young life was engendered from a cold caught at a ball which she attended, and her constitution being naturally weak, the cold developed into acute consumption. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the residence of the grief-stricken parents on South Flores street, at 3 o'clock, and the Rev. Dr. Lewenthal will perform the last rites of burial.

The Story of the Assault

John Jarzuch was brought before Justice Max Neundorff this morning for the assault he committed on Captain Story. A large number of witnesses were in attendance. Captain Story, who appeared to be in great pain, was first sworn, and deposed that he was assaulted and the manner in which Jarzuch struck him on the head and shoulder, severely shaking his system. Jay Minter also gave evidence, and Justice Anton Adams and Turner were put on the witness stand, after which the case was adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Ladies approve of your smoking Little Joker.

THE SOCIAL LAST NIGHT.

The ladies of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church never had, of all their hitherto pleasant socials, a more pleasant entertainment than they gave last night at the church. A delightful literary treat was first served, consisting of choice recitations and songs. Mrs. Rose M. Thorpe, authoress of "Cure for a cold" and "The Social Last Night," rendered an exquisite temperance gem. Though making no pretension whatever to elocution, Mrs. Thorpe has that which is far better, a keen appreciation of all the power of adapting herself to the needs of the masses, for whose good and to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "Cure" in the delivery of a melody that provided no small amount of merriment. The choir, by Miss Van Vleet and Mrs. Falkenberg, was superbly rendered. Also a duet by Misses Blum and Greene. Then came recitations to whom she so elegantly writes. Of course the ladies appreciating a good thing secured "C